

Angel Policy

We welcome artists who wish to sell their hand-stamped works using images from The English Stamp Company collection, although there are limitations. We have granted permission in the form of a limited license to use any of our stamp images for the purpose of creating craftworks for sale. Guidelines are as follows:

Each craftwork created for sale must be personally and individually hand stamped by the selling artist and may not be reproduced or copied in any form by any means, graphic, electronic, or mechanical, including photocopying. Mass production, assembly-line construction, production by workers for hire, or syndication of hand-stamped craftwork for sale is strictly prohibited.

All of The English Stamp Company's images are copyrighted. You may sell your craftworks at community fund-raising events, charity events, or other temporary craft or gift events. You may not use the name of The English Stamp Company in any way to promote sales of your craftworks. Hand-stamped items cannot be sold in any permanent retail location (any location that conducts business in retail premises, regular street market, internet site, or the like), nor may they be sold to other vendors for resale purposes.

You may not use The English Stamp Company images for the purpose of creating logos or company trademarks. Persons participating in the angel policy assume all liability for suitability of their work and agree to indemnify The English Stamp Company from disputes arising from their work.

This policy is governed by the law of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. Any failure by The English Stamp Company to enforce any of its rights will not constitute a waiver of such rights.
